"Dare it, Face it, Build it"

Abstract:

We all love and putting our mind at solving puzzles, now how if we get paid for this? Yes, you heard right. With the whole world joining the 'Go cashless, go virtual' stride we are bringing up an exciting event keeping up the spirit of virtual money. But there is more to this. Have you ever thought how exciting it would be to test your technical skills in adverse climatic condition like chilling atmosphere, amid of shocks and many more? Wait till the surprise twist that will freeze you to your 'CORE'.

Problem Statement:

Thinking business without technology or vice versa is like trying to glow a bulb without electricity! As history says that every event which has being completed successfully there's always a balance between technology and proper business knowledge/managerial skills. So, maintaining a balance between technology and managerial skills facilitates the prosperity in life of any individual, firm and nation as a whole.

Specifications:

- At least one of the member should have knowledge of IC's, shouldering, and should know how to operate basic component like DMM, power supply.
